Congratulations
on your
Blue Awards

Aanshi Bansal,
way to go above and beyond.

Congratulations being Listed in Top 10 winners of the Second edition of Catch The Flag - India.

you have shown commitment in completing the security challenges and have demonstrated learning of new skills and implementing the exploits to complete the challenges in such a short time.

I recommend you to join the security champion Seminars to extend your learning of Application Security tools, process and standards and play a role of security evangelist within your team and organization.
